Success Hacks for College Students: Qualities of Famous People that Students Can Learn to Create a Life of Unlimited Success!

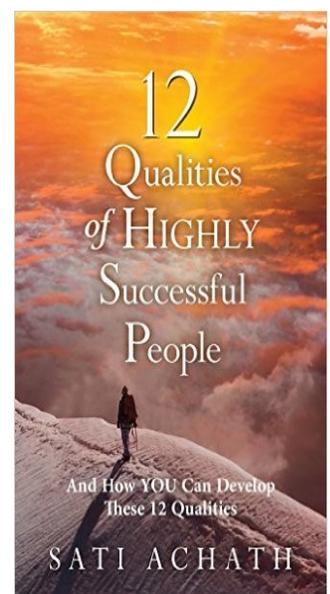

This fun and high energy presentation will leave students excited about their internal discoveries regarding what qualities they already possess that will facilitate their success in order to make a difference and impact the world as they move into their future endeavors. This is no-nonsense, eye-opening information that can be incorporated immediately to have instant influence in their community, which will create more happiness and passion for a more impactful life. They will learn to emanate the simple qualities of famous successful people such as Mark Zuckerberg, Oprah Winfrey, Bill Gates, Steve Jobs, and many other successful people.

Having spent more than 30 years on in-depth study of the secret merits of successful people, Sati Achath has uncovered the mysteries of human potential. He has applied these winning qualities in his own life and become highly successful: Sati holds four master's degrees, speaks six languages, and is the author of five books, including 12 Qualities of Highly Successful People. His cartoons and caricatures have been published in more than 25 US national newspapers. He was a quarter finalist on America's Got Talent and was a featured guest on The Late Show with David Letterman. No wonder, Sati has been recognized by the U.S. Government as a 'Person of Extraordinary Ability'. Who else can be better qualified than Sati as an expert to inspire your students to become highly successful?

Sati's mission is to share his insights and thoughts with intelligent humor and entertainment. His passion is to inspire people to learn and inculcate highly result-oriented qualities. Gifted with rare talents, Sati captivates his audiences from start to finish, with valuable information and unique delivery.

Sati's presentation will help college students discover a number of qualities; such as creating dreams, setting goals, developing self-discipline, overcoming obstacles, and becoming proactive that catapult them to limitless options and unlock their hidden potential.

Sati works as a Project Evaluation Specialist for the World Bank in Washington, D.C. He holds four master's degrees: MBA (USA), Master of Science (USA), Master of International Relations (France), and Master of English Literature (India). He has visited 58 countries.
